GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Situation of the Shoemaker's Strike

CHICAGO, Aug 17—The Times says the officers and agents of the St Crispin society say nearly all the men are getting some work and that the society will see them through until the manufacturers accede to the demands made. That a number of men are working is a fact, but it is not so clear where they get the work from It is said that work has been found for nearly all the men up to within 150 or so The men are not particularly buoyant or hopeful at the outlook and a number have sought work in other cities and more are going to leave They are glad to accept work in any other direction and express themselves as tired of perpetual wrangling, which for some time past has been going on between the operatives and bosses Some of the manufacturers are going to give up hand made work, for the present at any rate and send out machine made work, stamping as machine made Some of the manufacturers said yesterday they should wait until all the men got work before they took any decisive steps If the men get work or leave the city, the manufacturers say they will hold a meeting of the association and then adopt a plan which will, in their judgment, prevent the occurrence of any more protracted strikes. Upon being asked what they would do they did not hesitate to say that they should not give in to the demands of the union, but should bring on Chinese to work permanently in the shops They say they do not want a row here and say they will do nothing to precipitate one while these men are unemployed in the city but so soon as they get work they propose to bring the Chinese here and keep them here too.

U. S. Troops Invading Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 16—The Galveston News' special from Fort Clark says All the troops under command of Col Mackenzie, except two companies of infantry left to garrison the post, started at 2 o clock this morning. The advance guard started across the river early this morning The main column has been c[illegible] l day about a mile above the mouth [illegible] Sycamore. Every man has 140 rounds of ammunition and ten days' rations. The artillery is well supplied with ammunition. They are on the trail of stolen animals crossed into Mexico two days ago

What Orville Grant Says about U. S.

BOSTON, Aug. 17—Gen. Grant's brother, Orville, in an interview here, states that the general had written his friends that he would on no account accept the presidential nomination, but that probably he could be educated up to it as he was once before If he could be made to believe that he was the only man able to save the country or the party he would allow his name to be used, even at the risk of defeat.

Killed on Duty.

CHARLESTON, Aug. 17.—A man named Loftus who had a warrant for the arrest of Benjamin Suddath, who had escaped from the state prison, was killed to-day in attempting to arrest Suddath at his house in Greenville county.

Moonshiners Pleading Guilty.

The number of illicit distillers pleading guilty is largely diminished. Only about fifty more are expected.

[illegible] Third Term.

[illegible] 17.—The Tribune's Washing[illegible] story that Grant wants to [illegible] term, with Postmaster Gen[illegible] vice president.

Freight Houses Burned.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17.—The freight houses of the Chicago and Alton railroad burnt in East St Louis last night, were filled with general merchandise. The loss on freight is estimated at $75,000.

The Sand Lot Orator among the Hoosiers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug 18.—Denis Kearney and party arrived here this afternoon and made a short speech to a crowd of 1 500 or 2 000 persons. He was followed by A. R. Parsons, of Chicago, and Philip Van Patten, of Cincinnati.

Pedestrianism.

BOSTON, Aug. 18—O'Leary finished his 400 mile walk in 122 hours at 10 10 to night, having 20 minutes to spare.

Military Men on a Tour.

OMAHA, Aug. 18.—Gen Sherman, accompanied by his aide-de-camp, Gens A McDowell and McCook, left Omaha to-day for Fort Defiance, New Mexico, 250 miles west of Santa Fe, his business there being in connection with the Navajo Indians, with whom he has some matters to adjust he having made a treaty with them some years before his departure from Omaha This morning Gen. Sherman inspected Omaha barracks, and gave directions for the immediate expenditure of the congressional appropriation of $60,000 for permanent improvements, among which is to be a building costing thirty thousand dollars for headquarters of the Department of the Platte. He apprehends no serious or extensive trouble, such as war, will arise from the Mexican border trouble.

Bold Robbery.

H. T. Clark's store at North Platte bridge, 25 miles from Sidney, was raided Friday night by four young men, well mounted and armed, who secured $150 dollars in money and some goods. They bulldozed four men in the store and made them throw up their hands.

A Swag Recovered.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Pinkerton's detective agency, aided by city detectives, this afternoon captured the entire amount of of jewelry stolen from the Palmer-House yesterday, and one of the professionals who did the job The capture was effected through information furnished a lodging house keeper on State street, with whom they stopped all night Their room was searched during their absence and the jewelry found intact in a trunk

A Terrific Explosion.

POTTSVILLE, Aug. 17—During a storm about 4 o'clock this afternoon, the powder magazine of H. W. Welty & Co, containing 1,100 kegs of powder, was struck by lightning A terrible explosion followed, demolishing the magazine, scattering the débris in an easterly direction, making a gap in the neighboring woods fifty feet wide, killing three of a picnic party and more or less injuring several Many houses in the neighborhood were badly damaged.

The Invasion of Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug 18.—The Galveston News' special from Eagle Pass says McKenzie's forces yesterday, after crossing the river, surrounded the new town, but Almeda, who the Americans were after, escaped All the Mexican troops at Piedras Negras numbering about 150, have gone up the river They had a skirmish with the Americans, but avoided a general engagement

WASHINGTON CITY.

Grant and Key.

WASHINGTON, Aug 17—The Post this morning publishes a statement that Assistant Postmaster-General Tyner in conversation with some personal friend on his recent trip to Europe, remarked that he had conversed with several leaders of the Grant movement and that they are in dead earnest in pushing Gen Grant for the presidency He said that the choice of a man for the second place in the ticket had embarrassed the Grant managers a good deal until the name of Gen Key was suggested when it was adopted at once

Postoffice Key's Trip West

CHICAGO, Aug 17—The Inter Ocean's Washington special says It is said Key's trip through the country which he has just started upon, is being made with the purpose of feeling the sentiment on a proposed plan of breaking up the solid south and solid north in 1880. Friends of Assistant Postmaster General Tyner say this plan which is to be carried out by running Grant and Key in 1880 was conceived by Gen Grant who talked with Tyner when the latter was abroad

YELLOW FEVER.

Sorely Stricken Grenada

GRENADA Miss Aug 16—The scenes in this plague stricken town for the past 24 hours beggars description The strongest men, women and helpless children are sick dying or dead The official death list for the past 24 hours 1[illegible] The population has decreased to a little over 200 whites But few new cases no material to work on Deaths are old cases Freeman and wife from New Orleans en route to New York were put off the train this morning, both cases of well developed yellow fever

GRENADA Miss Aug 18—The death list for the past 24 hours decreased to 8 being 9 less than the previous 24 hours Only 9 new cases simply for lack of material One week ago this town contained 1 250 white inhabitants, now reduced by flight and death to 200 with only 30 to 40 well ones—Total number of deaths to 10 o clock to night 63

NEW ORLEANS Aug 17—New cases 73 deaths, 27

MEMPHIS Aug 17—Twenty three new cases and nine deaths reported to day Weather clear and warm

VICKSBURG, Aug 18—The health officers are unable to give official report for the past 24 hours The latest news is contained in the attached report from the Howard Association There are 50 cases of yellow fever in the city, and it is increasing rapidly It is confined to the destitute. Money is needed for their relief by the Howard Association

MEMPHIS Aug 18—The weather to-day has been clear and warm For 24 hours ending at 6 o clock this evening 11 new cases of fever were reported and 11 deaths Total cases to date about 100 total deaths 26 Of the cases at present, about one third are convalescent Quarantine.

CHICAGO, Aug 17—The Journal's Washington special says there is no longer any concealment of the apprehension felt here by both officials and private persons at the rapid advance of yellow fever Effect has been given to these apprehensions in Norfolk, Va, by the determination of the health authorities there last evening to establish a most rigid quarantine against all infected districts Officers of railroads connecting with that city, have accordingly been notified that neither baggage nor passengers from Memphis or any infected locality will be permitted to enter Norfolk or Portsmouth The stringency of the harbor quarantine has also been greatly increased Steps are now being taken to clean the city In Baltimore, while no change has been made with respect to quarantine, the city is being thoroughly cleaned and disinfected, and most careful precautionary measures are being taken to prevent the appearance of the plague The weather for a number of weeks has been particularly favorable for the approach of the disease, owing to an almost incessant rainfall and muggy atmosphere The fact that a schooner's crew coming from Cuba lies dead and dying at Breakwater, near Cape May increases the alarm

LITTLE ROCK Aug 16—Passenger and freight trains are running through from St Louis to Texas on the S L I M & S R. R. Health officers are stationed at Poplar Bluffs and Bismarck Missouri to examine all passengers and freight Officers of the railroad are working in harmony with the board of health All trains between this city and Memphis are stopped No signs of fever here Quarantine is strictly enforced. Passengers who were stopped two nights ago at the county line on the Memphis road, are still there permission being refused them to enter the city. The steamer Maumee, from Memphis, was stopped twelve miles below this city this morning

PITTSBURG Aug 17—At a meeting of the board of health this morning, it was decided to quarantine all boats and trains arriving from the south and west. Physicians will be be stationed at Davis Island, seven miles below the city.

PENSACOLA Fla, Aug 17—The American brig Akbar, of Machias Maine, from Cuba, is reported off Pensacola bar with the mate dead and the crew sick with fever As any pilot boarding her will be detained in quarantine until the frost, they will refuse to bring her in, and it is probable the vessel will sail north

THE POTTER INVESTIGATION.

NEW YORK, Aug 17—John A. Leete again took the stand and read several letters from Kellogg, one of which is as follows

WILLARD'S HOTEL Feb 27 1877

Dear Leete I received your letter It looks now as if the count would progress and Hayes be declared president before the 4th of March I noticed what you wrote about that Times special I immediately telegraphed a denial to the Times Packard will be recognized no doubt by Hayes, if not by Grant before he goes out of office I don't see how it can be otherwise, and all leading Republicans here are of that opinion and Louisiana's vote was counted and she did become the corner stone so to speak Such a wonder could only occur in so wonderful a country as this, and only once in one hundred years All's well that ends well Whatever betides, we have made a heap of history such as it. When you go into another state convention vote right. W P KELLOGG

Leete continuing said the $500,000 relief bill, passed in 1874, was for overflow and also to take care of niggers and see that they voted straight

Here another letter was read alluding to witness, who said, "That applies to me, that was the time when you (Potter) were on that committee, when you got away with Phelps and Foster."

Potter—I never met two more honorable men in my life Your statements are a mistake

Leete—Well we thought they were very soft and I was detailed to see after you and find out how you got around them

Witness produced an election ticket of 1876 gotten out by the Republicans It bore the names of the Democratic candidates all through with the exception of Darrell (Rep) for congress

Another letter was read from Wetmore to Leete It stated that he was getting disgusted with Wells and that he was nearly starving

Leete (continuing)—"You see Wetmore was James Madison Well's editor for his organ Wells lived at Rapides parish and remarked that the place was his private kingdom It would take a long time to explain the meaning of the letter

At this stage, owing to the absence of Gen Butler and some witnesses the committee adjourned

The Austrian general Jovanonish marching from Morton to join Gen Phillipovich, has stopped because his communications are threatened Execution of Hoedel.

NEW YORK, Aug 17—The Tribune's Berlin special says of the execution of Hoedel He received the announcement at first stolidly, but afterward betrayed great agitation Some difficulty had been experienced in obtaining an executioner It is reported that the man who at last accepted the task is a respectable butcher of Berlin When conducted to the place of execution Hoedel trembled, and his countenance was ashy The business was quietly done He was made to kneel down The executioner raised an immense double handed sword and the head fell upon the scaffold The reported executioner refused any award

Hoedel when informed that his execution was fixed upon, became deathly pale. He wished to plead for pardon, but recovered composure when told this was useless He then asked for wine for supper, and drank to the commune and leader of the social democracy When the sentence was read on the scaffold he spat disdainfully and cried "Bravo!" He refused the ministrations of the chaplain, declaring them useless, as it would take years to convert him Fifty persons including officials, judges, police, and twelve citizens, attended the execution which is generally approved Official notice of the execution had been posted throughout the city as a warning It required but a single stroke of the ax to decapitate Hoedel. The remains were immediately buried

Russian Chief of Police Assassinated.

ST PETERSBURG, Aug 17—As Gen Mizentzaw, chief of the emperor's private police was leaving the corner of Place Michael, he was fired upon by two persons with revolvers and fell wounded The assassins jumped into a drosky and drove off The assassins of Gen Mezenthow fired upon Gen Mankeiroff chief of the corps of gendarmes who endeavored to arrest the assassins after they had stabbed the chief of police From this circumstance arose the first report that Gen Mezenthow had been killed by a pistol shot They have not yet been arrested

ST PETERSBURG, Aug 17—Gen Mizentzaw chief of the emperor's private police, died of wounds received from two assassins He was stabbed above the heart

Societies for Assassination.

NEW YORK, Aug 17—The Tribune's special says The attempted assassination of the Russian chief of police is the subject of comment here The theory advanced is that it was the work of secret societies and was in retaliation for the execution of Hoedel at Berlin on the morning of the 16th A bond of sympathy is said to exist between secret societies in Russia, Germany and France and the fact that Hoedel's sentence was to be carried out was known in St Petersburg this morning It is said both Hoedel and Nobeling who is soon to meet Hoedel's fate are believed to have been in association with Russian societies

Opposition to the Anti Social Bill

LONDON Aug 17—German ultramontanes and progressionists bitterly oppose the new anti socialist bill before the federal cabinet The national liberals are undecided Their support would secure the adoption of the bill

International Monetary Conference.

PARIS Aug 17—Yesterday's session of the international monetary conference was almost entirely taken up by Groesbeck's address He laid much stress on the popularity always enjoyed in America by silver metal He described the inadvertent manner in which the laws of 1873 demonetizing silver was passed He vindicated congress from any suspicion of selfish motive in restoring silver to its former status He said that nearly half of the silver purchased by the treasury of the United States had been bought in London and that according to the best authorities the silver production of Nevada would diminish instead of increase

The bark Marmion is taking in a cargo of Wellington coal, and the bark Whistler has also arrived for a cargo

OREGON

Emile Barnard, aged 37 was drowned in the Columbia river at the Dalles some days ago He was a native of Prussia

Twenty dead American horses have been counted which were killed in the fight at Willow Springs, Umatilla county

The steamer Spokane got a hole knocked in her hull on Snake river rapids one day last week, and had to come down to Celilo for repairs

State officials are preparing and printing reports to the legislature all of which will show economy retrenchment and reform from a Democratic standpoint

The coroner's jury at Umatilla found that W D Brasfield killed John Knott in self defense However, Brasfield was afterwards arrested and held in bonds of $1 000

Pendleton Independent We learn from Mr Sanford who has been in the mountains looking after his sheep that he found between 300 and 400 head killed and burned by the Indians

Eugene Guard (Dem) These two papers (the Baker Democrat and Union Sentinel) assume that there is an irrepressible antagonism between Eastern and Western Oregon This bit of demagogism is too flimsy to merit a serious answer

The Dallas Itemizer says the farmers of Oregon would do well to look out for tramps and communists And the farmers, we may add who are a great majority of all the workingmen and property holders of the country are just the class to deal with the loafers and vagabonds

The Indians in their raid in Umatilla county visited the ranch belonging to J H Vinson on Butter creek Some of the deviltry they perpetrated at this ranch seems to have a spice of grim humor in it One thing they did was to kill all the hogs on the ranch and put a nice cheese under the head of each dead hog

Dalles Inland Empire John J Holland the supervising builder of the O S N Co has begun at Celilo to construct two large scows for blasting out rocks on Snake river They will be completed about the same [illegible] of them will be put to work at Fish Hook rapids, while the other will be moved to Pine Tree

A letter from Salem to the Dallas Itemizer says Two hundred and forty candidates for clerkships in the next legislature are in waiting [illegible] of them borrowing money and others standing off boarding house keepers until the time arrives for them to take in their harvest Of course some of them will be disappointed and creditors will suffer

Many buildings are going up at Dallas this summer The local paper says Every week our town is visited by men looking for houses for their families desiring to settle in our midst and if there were buildings to accommodate them the population of Dallas would have been almost doubled the present summer We learn that three different parties well known as substantial citizens contemplate erecting brick buildings for business purposes at an early date.

NOTES FROM YAKIMA

THE INDIANS—STATUS OF CHIEF JOSEPH—THE YAKIMA CANAL—VARIOUS MATTERS

YAKIMA CITY Aug 1[illegible], 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The Indian scare here is gradually subsiding although it is like a smouldering fire that is liable to burst forth with redoubled fury at any time The Indians are still congregated about the foot of Priest Rapids They do not pretend to fish or hunt or to do labor of any kind but they are subsisting off of cattle belonging to the settlers of Yakima Herders say they are killing great numbers We received 100 stand of government arms in this city this week which have been distributed among the settlers

Chief Moses sent a letter to this city this week written by Mr Miller, and dictated by him stating that he had the Indians that killed Mr Perkins and wife under guard, and if Gen Howard would come after them he could have them Howard could bring troops along if he wished, but no other armed men must venture into his country He also stated that he had taken the horses that were stolen from Mr Burbank and if Mr Burbank would send three unarmed men into his camp he would deliver the horses to him but if they came armed he could not control his men He admonishes the whites against sending any volunteers after the Indian murderers in his country, but reiterates that Howard can come unmolested

The Yakima Canal Co under the management of J J Imbrie and John Polly of Yakima and Johnston Freeman of Washington county Or promises to be an enterprise of untold value to the Yakima country The canal will be of sufficient capacity to irrigate a body of land about seventy miles in length and an average width of about five miles It can also be used for transportation of products and for bringing in wood and lumber for improvements The soil is very deep It is located at the foot of a range of mountains that extend from the Yakima group parallel with the Yakima river to the Columbia On this land there will be ample room for 1 400 settlers occupying 160 acres each Work will commence on the canal about the 1st of November

The farmers are busy harvesting and crops are turning out better than was at first anticipated The lawsuit of Schanno vs Shanno which involves a large amount of property and which has been in progress for four weeks, is still going on

The Swak mines are still paying well Several more large nuggets, weighing from $15 to $40, in addition to those brought down some weeks since weighing $130 and $180 convince us that these parties have struck a young bonanza

Polly and Imbrie left here this morning with another fine drove of beef cattle numbering over one hundred for the Portland market

The tide of immigration into this country has entirely ceased. More are leaving than are coming in KRITO

YAKIMA CITY, W T, Aug 10, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Now that the Indian scare is about over I propose to give the views as near as may be of the citizens of this territory east of the Cascades respecting the present government policy relating to the red skins.

It is nothing new to say that all of us believe that the present reservation system is a failure in every respect We who daily come in contact with the Indians cannot be made to believe that prayer books praying generals and Methodist preachers (or any other preachers) are a good safeguard against the tomahawk and scalping knife We believe the foolish attempt to Christianize "diggers" annually costs too many lives and too much treasure to be persisted in longer

And the psuedo philanthropists the Christian mongers of the east, who are paying thousands to send missionaries among these barbarians, would do us a favor if they would keep them away and they would more truly serve God by giving their money to the poor of the great cities

And if the U S government would be less influenced in its conduct toward the Indian by the advocates of Christianity, our wives and children might annually be spared the sight of murdered husbands and fathers Our farmers would not yearly be driven from their fields and kept away until their crops again go back into the ground Our stock men would not every summer see their fine horses and cattle slaughtered and stolen by the thousand For then we could rely upon the strong arm of the settler aided by the army, and would protect ourselves

And we hereby give notice to whom it may concern that in future we intend to protect ourselves for when a government becomes so imbecile as not to guard its citizens it then becomes the duty of the citizens to become a law unto themselves

So far we have abided by the laws, while a contemptible Democratic congress has been robbing us of an army, we have been loyal while reservation Indians with passes from Wilbur and other agents have been on the war path, we have remained passive while murders in our county have been committed, we have broken no law, although the dead carcasses of Wilbur's Indians killed in battle unveil the perfidy of agents in giving passes during these perilous times [We have reliable information that some of the dead Indians found after the battles near Pendleton had on their persons passes from Wilbur, and if Father Wilbur thinks the foregoing a little harsh let him ask and I will give my authority]

Besides this Wilbur had one of the murderers of Perkins and wife arrested and at Fort Simcoe but he let (?) him get away

Amid all these sins of omission and commission as well as a score of other gross wrongs by Indians and agents we have not murmured but unless we are protected those in power and the world will be called upon to chronicle another St Bartholomew

Wishing to be fully understood I give my name as D P BALLARD

THE SACRAMENTO MURDER

HOW IT WAS TRACED TO THE PERPETRATORS—THE TELL TALE BOAT—PARTICULARS WHICH LED DIRECTLY TO THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGENTS OF AN UNEXAMPLED CRIME

So much attention has been drawn to the unparalleled murder recently perpetrated in Sacramento county Cal that the following particulars which show how the crime was traced to the public administrator and his agents will be read with general interest We take them from the Record Union of Tuesday last

On the morning of the 2d instant A M Tullis a fruit grower on Grand island in this county was found dead in his orchard The night before two unknown men were seen to come down the river in a small roughly built boat They went to Tullis ranch and landed One of the men asked the Chinese servant for the boss He was directed to the orchard Soon after three shots were heard fired and the shouting of men and the barking of a dog Tullis was found next morning on the ground dead It was evident he had been running when shot and that he must have been stooping over when hit The murderers tracks were traced to the river edge The boat referred to was proven to be sharp at both ends, and to have had in it two strangers. On the morning of the murder, at early dawn, two men were seen to launch a rude boat from the old mouth of the American river Two cleats nailed on one end made an indentation in the sand which an officer found to correspond with the description of the cleats given by a man who saw the boat

Deputy Sheriff Harrison who was working up the case soon came to the conclusion that the murderers lived in Sacramento He got a buggy and he and the sheriff went to Cornish's ranch just below Clarksville, and there they got an accurate description of the men in the mysterious boat They were told they had passed on down the river The officers went on to Walnut Grove and there found parts of the boat, perhaps half or two thirds of it They examined the place where the ruins of the boat were first found Harrison's theory was all the time, that the boat had been scuttled and he had been anxious to find it The people on the island had offered $20 reward for the discovery of the boat. It was found by a butcher on the right of the levee He was driving on the levee on the side of Old river just below where Tullis was killed and heard a noise as if some one was hammering on a board at the edge of the river The noise came from the spot where subsequently the remains of the boat were found His horse became frightened, and jumped from the levee That led up to the finding of the parts of the boat in an eddy which held them in some willows. Harrison brought the boat pieces to Sacramento On one piece of lumber there was some figuring 64 was multiplied by 3 and a result was footed up after other computations showing $2 24. He was told 64 feet of lumber would build such a boat This led him to inquire as to where the lumber was purchased, as it was new redwood lumber about five eighths of an inch thick and planed on both sides He went to lumber yards and at last Sheriff Drew found that 64 feet of inch lumber had been sold from Walton's lumber yard twelfth and J streets July 30th I. B Lusk a salesman at the lumber yard, said he had sold the lumber for a duck boat to Edward Anderson and another man, who was smaller and whom he did not know That it was taken to a planing mill and dressed down to a half or five eigths of an inch and then sent to the house of Troy Dye on I street, between Twentieth and Twenty first streets.

The officers traced the matter sufficiently to show that the murderers left Sacramento in the boat built at Dye's house early on the morning of the murder—about daylight They went down the river arriving at Tullis about 3 P M After the commission of the murder they passed down the river a short distance, passed over to the main land and kicked the boat to pieces. It was held together by small round French nails, which could easily be driven out by a kick of the foot They then broke the boat lumber to pieces consigning it to the current of the river The fragments floated in to the shore and were held there The murderers then from there went up the Sacramento side of the river to a point opposite Clarksburg where they stole a skiff from the ferryman, and crossed to the Solano county side at Clarksburg Thence they went to Merritt's Island. Following Dye's movements it was found that he went to Merritt's Island with a team of two horses and brought the murderers home. The confessions of Dye and Anderson only confirm what had previously been fully developed. The motive of the crime is one probably that has no parallel.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Pierce county has 2,885 inhabitants, a gain of 600 since last year The property of the county is rated at $1,740,140

Hon Francis Henry has been selected to deliver the opening address, and Hon H G Struve the annual address, at the Olympia fair in October next.

Many handsome residences have been erected at Tacoma during the past year Frank Clark is finishing at that place one of the best dwellings in the territory.

The Tacoma Times says the works at Puyallup for the manufacture of barrel stock have been running nearly a year and have shipped stock for 200 000 sugar and flour barrels beside stock on hand for 20,000 fir and 10 000 spruce barrels,

Geo Blankenship of Olympia, who has just returned from a prospecting tour in the Cascades, says that his party found large bodies of rich bottom land on the head waters of the Cowlitz river, capable of supporting large settlements

Wm Pickett, an industrious newspaper man, has started a paper at Tacoma which he calls the North Pacific Times The number before us is filled throughout with matter of local and general interest We shall be glad to witness its success

Tacoma lumber mill was the last of ten large lumber mills built on the sound It was completed in 1868 The mill turns off about one hundred thousand feet of lumber per day when running its full capacity, and 35 000 laths in 12 hours

The Thurston County Railroad Construction Company advertise for bids for the county bonds, given for the construction of the Olympia and Tenino Railroad They are in denominations of $100 $500 and $1,000 each, bearing interest at eight per cent per year

A little daily has been started at Olympia It is called The Experiment It is started for the purpose of ascertaining if the people there are disposed to support a daily paper conducted on strictly business principles, which may be summed up in the sentence "to pay for every copy of the paper taken and for every advertisement inserted"

By the Tacoma Times the proposed constitution is vigorously opposed It condemns the "communistic embodiments contained in the railroad and church sections of the document It adds When this constitution may become the supreme law of the land, property values will shrink more than one half from the basis now calculated upon the future internal improvements proposed in this part of the northwest, and the good old mud road days of the past will be restored with low prices and high rates of interest With no railroads, and pawnshops and Shylocks to govern the finances the state of Washington will be a good country to emigrate from

A company consisting of eighteen persons citizens of Olympia, has been organized for the purpose of carrying on the oyster business at the head of the Sound on an extensive scale The capital stock of the company is $10 000 divided into $500 shares at $20 each A law passed by the last legislature allows each person to take up 20 acres of ground for this purpose and in compliance therewith the members have taken the oyster grounds in Olympia bay for that purpose Oysters from other bays will also be selected brought there and transplanted and at the proper season will be furnished in the market to all who want them It is the intention to put and send them in jars and kegs to their customers

Yellow Fever in New Orleans

The New Orleans Democrat makes note of the fact that the yellow fever this year differs in many characteristics from the peculiarities of the disease in former years

This year the patient feels no pain in the back and his pulse skin and general appearance do not indicate a high state of fever The fever is hidden internal though much more dangerous than apparent febrile symptoms The present sickness is sporadic, and gives us great cause of anxiety

REVIEW OF THE INDIAN CAMPAIGN.

WHAT HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED—EXHAUSTIVE MARCHES QUICK BLOWS AND GOOD RESULTS—SIX HUNDRED AND THIRTY INDIANS SURRENDERED AND THE TROOPS IN PURSUIT OF THE REMAINDER

Gen Howard returned to his headquarters at Vancouver Saturday night He regards the Indian campaign as substantially over It will be remembered that the first outrages were committed about the 1st of June last. In two and one half months the Indians, numbering at their largest number 700 warriors (1 500 when women and children are included) have been met in combat some five or six times defeated and driven every time At times they outnumbered the troops; at other times the troops had the advantage of numbers The troops have never, during the campaign, suffered any severe loss, due to the quickness of their attacks and the swift following of them up The campaign began near the lava beds between Boise and Fort Hall The troops were drawn from remote parts as well as those nearer at hand as Vancouver, Walla Walla, etc They marched with a rapidity never excelled. They chased the hostile raiders from the lava beds to the Owyhee, from the Owyhee to Stein's mountain from Stein's mountain to Old Camp Curry and there forced them to battle. They pushed them over the mountains and through the canyons across the John Day and its tributaries, through that ragged indescribable region of roughness for 250 miles to the headwaters of the streams issuing from the west flank of the Blue Ridge. By a clear concert of action, the troops from the Clearwater meet the pursuers and strike the hostiles a hard blow, driving them from chosen positions, killing and wounding many, and capturing camp, horses and plunder

Again threatening to cross the Columbia, the enemy is stopped and thrown back. Attempting to get upon the trails that would facilitate a junction with the northern Indians his move is anticipated. A second attempt to pass across the reserve is hindered by a night march and a fierce attack The hostiles break up into a number of fleeing parties, going back over worse trails than the ones on which they came, over the highest hills and mountains, through the deepest canyons and among dry, crackling, scraggy underbrush.

The troops are divided. They follow on different trails—by the Grand Ronde, by the Granite creek, by the roads and by the trails. Few but the Bannacks passed the Owyhee. Pushed and driven in every direction the hostiles have surrendered at the Malheur agency and Camp McDermit. Two battalions of cavalry and one of infantry are still pursuing the few remaining hostiles, variously estimated at from 50 to 150 and already far beyond the point of the original trouble.

The prisoners, men, women and children, those captured and those surrendered, number about 630 as follows. 25 at Umatilla agency, 20 at Fort Boise, 360 at Fort McDermit, including those that gave up early in the struggle from Stein's mountain, 240 at Malheur agency, now en route to Camp Harney, and 14 at Fort Lapwai. (These are the returned people of White Bird) The general is quite hopeful that another blow has been struck at the remnant beyond Boise before this. The most active of the troops, those that have done the chasing and the fighting, have marched over 1,500 miles. Citizen scouts have been largely employed this summer, and have been of the greatest service.

General Howard thinks proper punishment will be meted out to the most guilty, and that all the remainder will be sent without delay and parade beyond the reach of harm out of the department.

He has appointed a council of Columbias and Umatillas for a week from to day, and hopes the governor and prominent citizens of Umatilla county will be present. He thinks a temporary post of at least two companies will have to be kept near the Umatilla agency for the present, till congress can settle matters in that quarter by adequate and appropriate legislation.

General Howard has no fear of the criticism which his campaign has encountered. It is based, he believes, on the assumption that some locality, town or post was to be guarded by the troops, whereas the main and constant effort with the troops and means at hand was to overtake and fight the enemy; defeat his efforts at junction with waiting allies; and kill or capture, or drive beyond our limits these murdering hostiles. This he declares has been done

The Presbyterians of Cincinnati have celebrated the semi-centennial of a great revival in the First Church of that city. On July 28 1828, 333 persons were received into the church, of whom 24 were present at the celebration

The number of sheep on the Steilacoom prairies is estimated at 20,000.

BRITISH FOOD SUPPLY

A parliamentary document recently called the attention of the people of Great Britain to the sources from which they obtain their supply of breadstuffs and other food and their rapidly growing dependence on foreign supply. By the London Standard an elaborate analysis and review of this exhibit is presented with a view partly to awakening the English mind to the fact that if through any coalition or accident England should be debarred from trading with the United States and Russia the condition of her people for a time would be virtually that of starvation. In the United Kingdom the cultivation of the soil actually gives less employment to labor than it did twelve years ago though there has been marvellous progress in every other branch of industry and during the last twenty years the quantities of wheat barley and oats of home production sold in the various markets of England, have greatly diminished. Indeed the quantity of wheat of home production has fallen almost two thirds and the quantities of barley and oats have decreased in nearly like proportions. The reviewer says: "Startling as these figures are, we proceed to cite others more surprising still, for they establish beyond the possibility of doubt that it is not foreign competition which caused the decay of agriculture we have been tracing through both its great branches. Foreign competition can have an influence only by depressing prices below the point which renders a fair return to the British farmer. But we find that while, in 1858 the average price of wheat was only 44s 2d the quarter, the price has been higher than this ever since 1865—last year it was as much as 56s 9d. The price of both barley and oats also has been higher during the last half dozen years than in 1858. The inference to which these facts point is that our great imports of food are the effect, not the cause of the backwardness of British agriculture." Again, it is shown that not only the dependence on foreign grain is yearly becoming greater, but the number of live animals, the quantities of slaughtered meat, of butter, cheese and eggs imported by Great Britain for her own consumption, are rapidly rising. Since 1858 the population has increased only about five millions, while the value of food imports has risen from £25,898,000 to £99,696,000. But this is not so very alarming after all. It shows that the United Kingdom is growing enormously richer through other forms of industry. In fact the statisticians show that the new capital created and saved by the British people during the last twelve years exceeds the prodigious and inconceivable total of two thousand million pounds sterling. Greater profit is found in commerce and in branches of industry other than agriculture, and hence there is a largely increased and permanent prosperity. So long as the United Kingdom holds this position as the center of the capital, the commerce and the manufacturing industry of the world, it can command a supply of food, and it is really a little singular that one of its own leading journals should consider the situation alarming. The idea of a coalition among food-producing nations which might cut off the food supply of the nation that furnishes them their only great market, seems chimerical. To us here it would appear that we are about as much dependent on Great Britain for a market as she is on us for food.

YELLOW FEVER

This disease is becoming epidemic in our southern states, and its progress gives real alarm. Though usually confined within narrow geographical limits, it has been known, nevertheless, to take quite a wide range. Several weeks must elapse before the temperature becomes so low that cities like St. Louis, Cincinnati, Baltimore, and even New York, will be beyond the danger of its visits, and telegraphic advices inform us of precautions taken against it which indicate real alarm. The disease has at times prevailed epidemically in New York, but not, we believe, for many years. On two or three occasions it has also been very violent in Philadelphia. But it seldom makes its appearance as a pestilence north of the latitude of Wilmington, North Carolina and scarcely ever appears in that latitude upon the high levels of the interior. Its ravages in the United States have generally been confined to the Atlantic and Gulf coasts and their immediate vicinity. All will remember the terrible havoc caused by it two years ago at Shreveport, on Red river, in the northwestern part of Louisiana, when its effects at New Orleans were comparatively trifling. Last year its most violent ravages occurred at St. Augustine and Fernandina, Florida, where a very large proportion of the population who could not fly from the scourge were stricken by it.

The question as to its contagiousness has been the subject of much heated controversy, but since the germ theory in regard to disease has been advanced to a front rank among the results of scientific inquiry, the controversy is shifted from its old ground. There is a general tendency to accept the doctrine that each disease has its own specific germ, which is thrown off from the diseased person in countless numbers, and that each germ is possessed of life and power of reproduction when received under favorable circumstances into the human organism. There are few of our readers who will not remember the highly valuable essay by Dr Watkins on this subject printed in THE OREGONIAN several months ago. From all that is known of yellow fever and the class of disorders to which it may be said to be allied the fact would appear to be settled that the special cause is not generated within the bodies of the affected. In each case it is a germ, the effects of which we see in the disorder itself wherever it finds in the human system a lodgment favorable to its development. The germ of yellow fever, unlike that of some other zymotic disorders is destroyed by frost so that it cannot reproduce itself, hence it rarely passes certain geographical limits and is always checked by change of seasons. Otherwise there being no protection against it like vaccination against small pox and no other known agency except frost that effectually destroys its morbific cause, it probably would become the greatest general scourge of the human race.

JOHNSON'S NEW UNIVERSAL CYCLOPÆDIA

We have given this work some examination, and are most favorably impressed with its completeness and excellence. It is exceptionally comprehensive, both in the range and treatment of topics. It is comparatively easy to prepare even so great a work as a general cyclopædia, if editors and publishers are content with articles which may be cut from old books and fashioned in some sort for a new one without much labor, but this patch work does not make a cyclopædia such as the present times require. A book of general reference to be of real value must embody the results of modern research and scholarship in all branches of human knowledge. In matters of history and opinion it must be fair and absolutely impartial. Its scientific articles to be of value must be the work of writers of large experience and recognized celebrity in their special departments. The range of knowledge is so wide that the best results can be reached only through the labors of those who give themselves up to special study and to such alone are we to look as authorities. In the preparation of this cyclopædia the work was divided into many general departments to each of which was assigned as editor a man of highest known attainments and as each department naturally has a very large number of subdivisions articles were solicited from persons of recognized authority in all the various fields of knowledge and to each important article the name of the writer is appended as a guarantee of its thoroughness and authority. Every article is fresh and new. No American cyclopædia surpasses this in the volume of its matter while we believe that in careful and accurate treatment of its subjects it is superior to them all. This cyclopædia is on a plan suggested by the late Horace Greeley by whom the publishers were induced to undertake so great a work. Mr Greeley himself contributed a number of articles and his last important literary labor was employed on its pages. The title page of this cyclopædia presents an array of names which form an unequalled combination of editorial talent and the list of contributors is unmatched by that of any rival American publication whatever. Heretofore this cyclopædia has not been introduced in Oregon but an agent of the publishers whose notice is printed in another place in this paper, will now afford our people opportunity to examine it.

THE TRAGEDY AT ROSEBURG

The following particulars of the tragedy at Roseburg last Wednesday evening are furnished by the Plaindealer:

William Dealy a blacksmith who has resided in Roseburg several years, is a son in law of W G Woodward and a brother in law of John Woodward the other party killed. Dealy and his wife separated some time ago she going home to live with the old folks and taking their only child aged about 18 months along with her. On Wednesday evening Dealy asked the city marshal to accompany him to Woodward's house to see his child and also asked Woodward's permission to go there which was readily given. The two men walked over and after remaining at the house a while returned, meeting Woodward in the narrow alley between his harness shop and Hawley Dodd & Co's wagon shed. A few words passed between the men and they both became considerably excited. The marshal was standing between the two men when Dealy drew his pistol and fired at Woodward the ball striking the wall near where the latter stood. About this time John who is about 20 years of age approached Dealy from behind him and struck him over the shoulder with a dirk knife, inflicting a wound about three inches above the right nipple from which he died. The knife passed through the coat twice and two shirts before entering the body but it performed its fatal message as effectually as if there was nothing to interfere. Dealy immediately faced about and shot, the bullet striking the boy near the pit of the stomach in which it must have lodged and he sank back or doubled down to the ground. Dealy immediately turned and again fired at W G Woodward, who was attempting to make his escape through the wagonshed. He then ran into the street, and as the old man came from the shed shot at him again, the ball taking effect in the wall just above his head. By this time Dealy was so weak from the loss of blood that he walked up the street, and was carried to Hamilton's drug store, where he soon afterwards breathed his last.

Young Woodward after being shot got up and followed Dealy to the street then passed through Parrott's boot and shoe store to the rear and went home, after which he lingered until 11 30, when he breathed his last. His parents a brother and sister reside in our town. W O Dealy was born in Jackson county Missouri, November 23 1848 and was nearly 30 years old. He has a mother and other relatives residing near Salem in this state beside his child and undivorced wife in this place.

GEO W WEIDLER Agent

The first shipment of Imported Cigars made of New Crop Tobacco, reached San Francisco from Havana, yesterday. Having anticipated this arrival through timely advices, I sent my Agent, Mr Dave Lasar, to San Francisco, with instructions to await their coming, and select regardless of cost, and for cash, the very best from among them. This morning I received a telegram informing me that instructions had been carried out and the goods shipped. ISAAC BLUM.

MONDAY MORNING AUGUST 19 1878

CITY.

A [illegible] SHOT.—About 10 o'clock Saturday morning Victor Bellinger, son of C B Bellinger, Esq, met with a most shocking accident under the following circumstances: He was engaged in loading a shell cartridge for a shotgun at the time of the distressing mishap. He had attached the percussion to the lower end of the shell placed the powder in and was ramming down the wadding preparatory to putting in the shot. To force the wadding down Victor used a short iron ramrod probably a foot long. While thus engaged the cartridge exploded driving the ramrod through his hand and up against his forehead. One end of the rod struck the bone of the right eyebrow, near the nose, shattering it and tearing away in the upward passage the flesh. So violently was the rod driven that it penetrated the skull and entered the brain making a very dangerous wound. Drs Parker, Rafferty and Watkins were summoned as speedily as possible and rendered all the assistance in their power. The wound was carefully dressed, and up to a late hour last night the lad was resting comfortably and the symptoms were rather favorable. Several dispatches have been sent to Mr Bellinger who is about thirty miles from Jacksonville, apprising him of the terrible accident. He will probably reach here to-morrow evening. Victor is aged about sixteen years and is a strong robust boy, which is one circumstance in favor of his recovery. He is conscious and perfectly sensible answering all questions intelligently. The chances of recovery are quite slender but if inflammation does not set in the lad may pull through. The parents have the sincere sympathy of the community in this their sad affliction.

VERY LARGE MEETING.—The meeting of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society on board the Belle of Oregon yesterday was of more than usual interest. A very large assembly congregated on the wharf and on the poop deck of this beautiful vessel to participate in these open air services. Generous and tasteful arrangements were made by the officers for the accommodation of the worshippers. Capt. Packard, of the ship Annie M. Small, rendered excellent service as usher. The audience paid marked attention to the earnest discourse on "Conversion and Regeneration," by Chaplain Stubbs. This work on the vessels visiting Portland could be rendered still more efficient if those who sing would more numerously contribute their aid.

BODY FOUND.—Coroner Cook was notified late Saturday evening that a body had been founded on the east side of Swan Island near the north end. Summoning a jury, the coroner proceeded at once to the place. The body was found stark naked and had evidently been in the water some time, as it was very badly decomposed. The remains could not possibly be identified and were buried near the spot where they were found. The following persons composed the jury: H. Robinson, J Sheridan, G H. Wohlers, M J. Walton and P. Griffin. The verdict was to the effect that the name of deceased was unknown, that the cause of his death is unknown, supposed to have been caused by drowning.

A "CUITAN" ARRESTED.—Quite a sensation was created yesterday about 11 o'clock by the playful antics of a bucking Cayuse in front of the Presbyterian church. After jumping stiff-legged for about half a block the saddle got loose, and the rider was thrown ingloriously to the earth, striking on his shoulder, fortunately without serious injury. A great crowd assembled and followed the liberated steed until he was finally apprehended at police headquarters, rushing frantically into the very hall and naturally creating a great commotion among the officers and loungers in that usually quiet and peaceful Arcadia.

ARREST OF AN EMBEZZLER.—Saturday evening Joseph Day arrested J. Worthington and lodged him in the county jail on a charge of embezzlement in Los Banos, Merced county, California. It seems that on the 27th of July last, this Worthington managed to gain possession of some money which did not belong to him, and skipped out for Oregon. Word came to this city requesting his arrest, in accordance with which he was last evening taken into custody. Sheriff Meany, of Merced county, will arrive in this city in a few days and conduct the prisoner to the scene of his crookedness.

SANITARIUM.—This is the name of a new bath house just opened at the corner of Taylor and Second streets by Mr. W. C. Chattin. The establishment is under the medical supervision of Dr. Heslop. The celebrated patent pine and hemlock vapor baths, introduced here for the first time, have a wide reputation in the east for the cure of chronic diseases, such as rheumatic, neuralgic, lumbago, kidney, liver and lung diseases, asthma, chills and fever. Give Mr Chattin a call. For full particulars concerning the sanitarium see the advertising columns.

INSANE PATIENTS.—Saturday a man giving his name as W. Peterson was taken into custody on a charge of lunacy. He was subsequently examined before Judge Rice, who pronounced him insane and had him committed to the asylum. Friday the sheriff of Tillamook arrived in this city, having in charge an insane man who insists upon calling himself Ben Boy. He came to Tillamook a short time ago, but nothing can be ascertained as to where he came from or what is his real name. The cause of his insanity is unknown.

RACE FOR A DRINK.—Two men who had already imbibed freely started on a foot race, for the drinks around the block on which the Occidental hotel stands, on Saturday night about 12 o clock. Their swift running at that hour attracted the attention of the police and the racers were "nabbed," while the wicked saloon keeper who instigated the contest, closed his house and went home. It was a ruse of his to get rid of the fellows and succeeded well. The affair drew quite a crowd, and created a good deal of fun.

BELATED.—A large party engaged the yacht Emma Baker last evening and set sail. Later the wind died away and they floated about waiting patiently for a "freshening breeze" which failed to put in an appearance. During this period they sang "Auld Lang Syne," "Annie Laurie," etc, the strains of which wafted across the broad Willamette to this office. After 10 o'clock the sounds died away and we came to the conclusion that they had reached LaChapelle's boat house and tied up for the night.

WILL NOT PARTICIPATE.—Among those who are advertised to participate in the anniversary exercises to come off at Turn Halle next Wednesday evening the name of Miss Eugenie Rosenheim appears. Miss Rosenheim called at this office and authorized us to state that she had not been consulted and that her name appeared without her knowledge or consent. The young lady states that she will not participate as announced.

EYE KICKED OUT.—Last Tuesday, while Mr Geo. Curran, a farmer at Eagle creek, was engaged in hitching a pair of horses to a threshing machine, he was kicked in the face by one of the horses, a young colt. One of his eyes was [illegible] and he was completely stunned by the force of the blow. Dr Mc[illegible] was [illegible] and states that except [illegible] loss of his eye Mr Curran [illegible]

Accidentally Shot —About 5 30 o clock Saturday morning Victor Bellinger son of C B. Bellinger Esq , met with a most shocking accident, under the following circumstances He was engaged in loading a shell cartridge for a shotgun at the time of the distressing mishap He had attached the percussion to the lower end of the shell placed the powder in and was ramming down the wadding preparatory to putting in the the shot To force the wadding down Victor used a short iron ramrod probably a foot long While thus engaged the cartridge exploded, driving the ramrod through his hand and up against his forehead One end of the rod struck the bone of the right eyebrow near the nose shattering it and tearing away in the upward passage the flesh So violently was the rod driven that it penetrated the skull and entered the brain making a very dangerous wound Drs Parker Rafferty and Watkins were summoned as speedily as possible, and rendered all the assistance in their power. The wound was carefully dressed and up to a late hour last night the lad was resting comfortably and the symptoms were rather favorable. Several dispatches have been sent to Mr Bellinger, who is about thirty miles from Jacksonville, apprising him of the terrible accident He will probably reach here to-morrow evening Victor is aged about sixteen years and is a strong robust boy, which is one circumstance in favor of his recovery He is conscious and perfectly sensible, answering all questions intelligently The chances of recovery are quite slender, but if inflammation does not set in the lad may pull through. The parents have the sincere sympathy of the community in this their sad affliction.

Very Large Meeting —The meeting of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society on board the Belle of Oregon, yesterday was of more than usual interest A very large assembly congregated on the wharf and on the poop deck of this beautiful vessel to participate in these open air services Generous and tasteful arrangements were made by the officers for the accommodation of the worshippers Capt. Packard, of the ship Annie M Small rendered excellent service as usher The audience paid marked attention to the earnest discourse on 'Conversion and Regeneration,' by Chaplain Stubbs This work on the vessels visiting Portland could be rendered still more efficient if those who sing would more numerously contribute their aid

Body Found —Coroner Cook was notified late Saturday evening that a body had been founded on the east side of Swan Island near the north end. Summoning a jury, the coroner proceeded at once to the place The body was found stark naked and had evidently been in the water some time, as it was very badly decomposed The remains could not possibly be identified and were buried near the spot where they were found The following persons composed the jury H. Robinson, J. Sheridan, G H. Wohlers, M J. Walton and P. Griffin. The verdict was to the effect that the name of deceased was unknown; that the cause of his death is unknown; supposed to have been caused by drowning.

A "Cuitan" Arrested —Quite a sensation was created yesterday about 11 o'clock by the playful antics of a bucking Cayuse in front of the Presbyterian church. After jumping stiff-legged for about half a block the saddle got loose, and the rider was thrown ingloriously to the earth, striking on his shoulder, fortunately without serious injury A great crowd assembled and followed the liberated steed until he was finally apprehended at police headquarters, rushing frantically into the very hall and naturally creating a great commotion among the officers and loungers in that usually quiet and peaceful Arcadia.

Arrest of an Embezzler —Saturday evening Joseph Day arrested J Worthington and lodged him in the county jail on a charge of embezzlement in Los Banos, Merced county, California. It seems that on the 27th of July last, this Worthington managed to gain possession of some money which did not belong to him, and skipped out for Oregon. Word came to this city requesting his arrest, in accordance with which he was last evening taken into custody. Sheriff Meany, of Merced county, will arrive in this city in a few days and conduct the prisoner to the scene of his crookedness.

Sanitarium.—This is the name of a new bath-house just opened at the corner of Taylor and Second streets by Mr. W C Chattin The establishment is under the medical supervision of Dr Heslop The celebrated patent pine and hemlock vapor baths, introduced here for the first time, have a wide reputation in the east for the cure of chronic diseases, such as rheumatic, neuralgic, lumbago, kidney, liver and lung diseases, asthma, chills and fever. Give Mr. Chattin a call For full particulars concerning the sanitarium see the advertising columns

Insane Patients —Saturday a man giving his name as W. Peterson was taken into custody on a charge of lunacy. He was subsequently examined before Judge Rice, who pronounced him insane and had him committed to the asylum. Friday the sheriff of Tillamook arrived in this city, having in charge an insane man who insists upon calling himself Ben Boy He came to Tillamook a short time ago, but nothing can be ascertained as to where he came from or what is his real name. The cause of his insanity is unknown.

Race for a Drink.—Two men who had already imbibed freely started on a foot race, for the drinks, around the block on which the Occidental hotel stands, on Saturday night about 12 o'clock. Their swift running at that hour attracted the attention of the police and the racers were "nabbed," while the wicked saloon keeper, who instigated the contest closed his house and went home It was a ruse of his to get rid of the fellows and succeeded well. The affair drew quite a crowd and created a good deal of fun

Becalmed.—A large party engaged the yacht Emma Baker last evening and set sail Later the wind died away and they floated about waiting patiently for a 'freshening breeze' which failed to put in an appearance During this period they sang "Auld Lang Syne" "Annie Laurie," etc , the strains of which wafted across the broad Willamette to this office. After 10 o'clock the sounds died away and we came to the conclusion that they had reached LaChapelle's boat house and tied up for the night.

Will not Participate —Among those who are advertised to participate in the anniversary exercises to come off at Turn Halle next Wednesday evening the name of Miss Eugenie Rosenheim appears. Miss Rosenheim called at this office and authorized us to state that she had not been consulted and that her name appeared without her knowledge or consent. The young lady states that she will not participate as announced

Eye Kicked Out.—Last Tuesday, while Mr Geo. Curran, a farmer at Eagle creek, was engaged in hitching a pair of horses to a threshing machine, he was kicked in the face by one of the horses a young colt One of his eyes was fairly cut out and he was completely stunned by the force of the blow Dr McCoy was in attendance, and states that except the unfortunate loss of his eye Mr Curran will soon be all right

THE INQUEST.

TESTIMONY TAKEN AT THE INQUEST HELD ON THE BODY OF HENRY McLAUGHLIN—VERDICT —ARREST OF N J HAMMEL

Henry McLaughlin who was shot at the Terminus saloon Thursday night while he was attempting (so it is alleged) to set fire to the building died at St Vincent's Hospital Friday night at 10 30 o'clock of the injuries received Coroner Cook was notified and caused the body to be removed to the morgue where an inquest was held The following is the substance of the testimony elicited during the inquest The first witness called was

EDWIN ROY

Who testified Know deceased he is a room mate of mine and is a quiet man saw him in bed room at the Howard House Thursday afternoon at 4 o clock he was sober never saw him drunk have known him three weeks his name is Henry McLaughlin his age is about 31 or 3 years Do not think he is married could not say where he is from I saw him at the hospital he had been working the day before never saw him have any firearms

J W [illegible]

Was called and testified I have not seen McLaughlin since his death I saw the wound it was a pistol wound it was in the center or pit of his stomach he was shot in front told me his name was McLaughlin he was about 40 years of age he worked a while for G B Scott in company with a man named Taylor on the night of the shooting he went to the bottom and got a drink at Hammel's saloon where they both fell in with two half breed women from there they took a walk and afterwards called at Hammel's Taylor, and both women went into the saloon and had some drink then said McLaughlin the girls gave us the slip Taylor and I started to town we came by Herman's saloon and got another drink I said to Taylor I m going back and find the women I went back alone put a board on the fence and went into the saloon yard went to the rear window of saloon as I thought the women slept there some one raised the window and shot at me I then ran to the privy and some one shot at me again I do not remember if I saw officer Gwyne there at the time but there were three shots fired, as they took me to be the party who set fire to the house I do not attach any blame to them for shooting me That is about all McLaughlin said to me two shots were fired while he was in the privy think it was the second shot which hit him Mr Hammel said he was awakened by the crackling of fire he sat up in bed and smelt something like clothes burning he jumped up and looked out of the window and saw the fire he went and got water and put it out he thought some one was in the yard and shot at him ran back and put on his pants and coat took his pistol sat on the side of the bed and raised the curtain so that he could see out of the window he sat there about 10 or 15 minutes when he heard a rustling in the rosebushes along side the window and saw a man walking past he raised the window with his left hand and fired his pistol with his right the man ran to the privy when he fired a second time from the window as the man disappeared in the privy about that time officer Gwyne came and ordered the man to throw up his hands McLaughlin did not do it and Gwyne fired at him this is all that I remember that Hammel told me Gwyne said it was about 12 30 when the shooting occurred neither of the balls which struck the privy hit the man I am positive of that when I talked with McLaughlin he did not think he would die he said he experienced a good deal of pain but thought he would be all right

DR RINEARSON

Was called and testified Am physician and surgeon and reside at St Vincent Hospital I saw McLaughlin in his lifetime saw him in one of the wards in the hospital between the hours of 12 and 1 o clock Friday night there were present the watchmen and one of the sisters and Father Orth did not see Gwyne or Hammel found McLaughlin in a suffering condition I then made an examination and found that he was shot, and that his injuries were fatal he asked me what I thought about his condition he then related to me the circumstances, he said "In the early part of the evening I went to the saloon opposite the hospital after taking a few drinks I left there about 9 o clock in company with two half breed women and went to the other saloon, I commenced drinking at this saloon with the women pretty soon the girls disappeared and I left the saloon to look for them I saw an opening in the board fence through which I passed to the privy I then lit a match to find my way I sat down when three shots were fired at me the last one taking effect this is all he said I then made a careful examination of the wound found the entrance of the wound was very small looked to me as if it had been done by a pistol the wound was about one half inch to the right of the breast bone and about an inch below the seventh rib, I probed the wound and found it ranged upwards did not find the ball at that time, in my opinion the man died from the effects of the wound I assisted at the post mortem examination of McLaughlin's body we found the ball in the muscles of the back I think he made his statement to me of his own free will in the face of pending death I think the wound could have been made in a stooping or sitting position it is my opinion the wound could not have been made if the man had been standing, and the ball ranged the way it did

DR W H SAYLOR

Testified I have seen subject of inquest, saw him before his death I made an examination about 10-30 yesterday morning, I found him suffering from a gunshot wound, the ball had entered the body about one inch below the margin of the breast bone and one half inch to the right passing downwards, I prescribed for him he told me he did not set fire to the house, and otherwise substantiated Dr Rinearson's statement I made a post mortem examination and found the ball had entered the body as stated before, ranging downward and backward and lodging in the small of the back on the right side near the spinal column [Here witness produces the ball shows it to the jury and states that it was taken from McLaughlin's body, and that death resulted from the wound] I was satisfied the wound was fatal when I first saw him I think he was in a stooping position when he was shot my reason is that the ball passed through the left lobe of the liver as well as the right which could not have happened if he had been standing erect.

JOHN E HUGHES

testified Have known deceased about 15 years his name was Henry McLaughlin aged about 40 years he was in the United States service in 1863, in my company, his habits were good and temperate never knew him to be drunk never knew him to have trouble with any one I met him about one month ago think he had been fishing and had lately come from the Sound he belonged to company B, 1st battalion California volunteers.

JOHN BROWN

testified Am watchman on the new boat being built for the Vancouver trade which is located about half or quarter of a mile from the saloon I heard shooting at the saloon Thursday night about 15 minutes to 1 o clock I supposed it to be at Gerard's saloon after the shooting three or four minutes I saw a light on the outside think I could walk 50 yards between each shot

testified I was in the neighborhood of the Terminus saloon Thursday night about 12 30 o clock saw a light at the window of the dwelling part of the saloon Just then I heard a pistol shot I mounted the fence to try and get over Just as I did so, I saw a man running I think I said Stop your shooting" Just then the second pistol shot was fired, Mr Hammel heard my voice and opened the door I learned then that something was wrong I ran for the yard and saw him run toward the privy I told him to stop but he did not, and turned as if to draw a weapon I then fired at him he told me not to shoot any more I told him to hold up his hands and he did so I then took hold of him There were five of us who took McLaughlin to the hospital just after the shooting Mr Hammel lit a candle and left it burning in the house

N J HAMMEL

Testified Am saloon keeper at the Terminus saloon was there Thursday night, do not know Henry McLaughlin, I have seen deceased, saw him Thursday night about 10 o clock two men came to the saloon (I recognize deceased as one of the men) with two women I was in bed when they came, they asked for a drink, I gave them some I told them I wanted to go to bed as I felt chilly the women went out into the back yard the two men asked me to go after the women I called them one came in but went out again and when I went to look for them I could not find them and told the men they were gone they then started to find the girls I closed the house and went to bed the women came back and wanted to get in, but I would not admit them, the women went one way and he men the other, about 1 o clock I heard something crackling like wood burning it was all light from the reflection on the fence I did not see any one when I first looked out it was a clear moonlight night I sat on the side of the bed and heard the brush rustling and saw a man walking toward the privy I then threw up the window and fired at him Officer Gwyne asked him what made him set fire to the house and he said he wanted to burn the whole house and all

CHARLES [illegible]

Testified I was at the Terminus saloon Thursday night saw McLaughlin [illegible] saloon about 11 o clock he was intoxicated there was a man with him but I did not know him when I met McLaughlin he wanted to know if I had seen two women I saw him next when he was shot heard two shots and heard Mr Hammel call "Tipp" (Gwyne) saw Tipp going to Hammel I jumped up and saw Tipp shoot the man fell in the privy Tipp told him to throw up his hands Hammel said he was there half an hour before to set fire to the house there were boards off the fence [illegible] was in the yard with three others when Tipp shot at him the last time

ARREST

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Hammel He is charged with [illegible] and is at present confined in the county jail

CHARGED WITH MURDER

JACKSON GRANT AN INDIAN ARRESTED ON SUSPICION OF BEING THE ASSASSIN OF DENNIS SPELLEN

Saturday morning a full blooded Indian giving his name as Jackson Grant was arrested on the bottom a short distance below the city by Chief Besser Grant is strongly suspected of being the murderer of Dennis Spellen whose lifeless body was found lying in a gulch near his cabin which is situated in close proximity to bridge No 4 on the line of the westside road south of this city Spellen is supposed to have been foully murdered Tuesday night June 27th The remains were not discovered until the following Sunday Ever since the murder was committed the authorities have been engaged in ferreting out the perpetrator No possible clue could be discovered notwithstanding every effort was made until very recently Chief Besser has been tracking the matter up and the arrest of Grant is the result

Grant the prisoner is said to be a very hard case He says he was born in Northern California and his father is a half Spaniard Grant says he is not a Modoc although they tried to claim him He was raised upon the Stickeen river and for a long time was employed on the steamer California in the capacity of second cook Subsequently Grant worked in the chop house and restaurant kept by Mac in this city He has served out two terms of confinement in the penitentiary—both for horse stealing Grant is supposed to be the same person who stole Mr Shaver's horses on the night of July 4th from his stable in East Portland He is the identical fellow who fired several shots at Sheriff Lakin of Lane who was after him for horse stealing He was subsequently arrested at Gervais, but effected his escape a few days ago When he escaped from Gervais he had on a pair of handcuffs He was unable to get them off, and wandered about the country manacled He wore a heavy overcoat and was thus enabled to conceal the tell tale jewelry One of the cuffs fitted very tightly on his wrist, causing the limb to swell and become painful Grant came to Portland on Thursday but fearful of being detected, he went down on the bottom and stopped there Friday night Chief Besser having traced him from place to place arrested him Saturday morning and locked him up Grant said he intended to give himself up any way as his wrist had become very painful and he could not get the cuffs off

The prisoner is a very diminutive Indian and has a bad countenance and a very vicious twinkle in his eye We understand, that there is strong evidence in support of the charge of his having been the murderer of Spellen He will probably be examined to day on the charge

LAUNCH OF THE LATONA.

L, writing from La Center W T, under date of the 11th sends the following

This little town was made lively to day by an event that is novel in its history It had become known that the new steamer being built by the Lewis and Lake River Transportation Company under the superintendence of William Mullins would be launched at 4 o'clock this afternoon The affair seems to have awakened considerable interest for long before the designated time people from Lake river, Lekin [illegible] Cedar creek, Chelat [illegible] Union ridge and the country along the two forks of this stream numbering not less than [illegible] had gathered along the banks and were anxiously waiting to see the success of the Hyla consigned to her watery element When [illegible] of which was written in large capitals [illegible] classical name Latona were hauled off from her deck

The mauls applied to the wedges [illegible] and at [illegible] with about [illegible] persons aboard amid the cheers of the exultant crowd she glided swiftly into the stream [illegible] on similar occasions before but on this one there was manifestly more than ordinary interest The whole circumstances attending the organization of this company the personal character and [illegible] its stockholders and the close [illegible] with the growth and prosperity of this section of the country all combined to make us feel like exclaiming She is ours The woodwork of the Latona will be finished about the 1st September when she will be taken to Portland to receive her machinery She is a fine model [illegible] feet long, 18 feet beam and [illegible] feet hold It is estimated she will carry about 80 tons burthen It is expected that she will be finished in about a month when she will supersede the Hyla on the route between here and Portland

TO THE PUBLIC.

There is nothing so well calculated to put the average reader out of humor as to commence an interesting article upon some alleged scientific discovery, Indian war news etc etc , full of interest and just as the happy peruser's mind is thoroughly infatuated with the subject striving with great effort to grasp it in all its bearings away goes the author loud in his praise of some hair renewer balsam or other, just as the OREGON BLOOD PURIFIER LIVER and KIDNEY REGULATOR (cannot be truthfully called a patent medicine (although we have our copyright to prevent a spurious article being placed before the public) as the following account of its origin will show

For many years past hundreds of the best citizens of the city when troubled with dyspepsia loss of appetite irregularities of the liver and kidneys have called upon Mr Pfunder at his Pharmaceutical Palace corner Ash and First streets and requested a compound that would build their systems up In each and every case there was this comparatively unknown remedy given and its results were of such satisfactory nature and so highly recommended by those who used it that the purely vegetable compound made from Oregon herbs and roots created a large demand for itself and upon its own merits, It was then known as Pfunder's Regulator Desiring to benefit the community at large Mr Pfunder conceived the idea of placing this great Regulator before the people and what has been the result? The sale of the Oregon Blood Purifier has already been greater than that of any medicine manufactured on the Pacific Coast

You will therefore observe that this is not got up to sell It has been weighed fairly in the balance and not found wanting.

We deeply sympathize with the public in being so often imposed upon in purchasing many 'tonics' so called which by the large proportion of spirituous liquors used in their preparation are most injurious to the delicately formed tissues of the human stomach

The Celebrated Oregon Blood Purifier contains no alcoholic stimulant (in plain language refuse whisky) as many lately discovered Oregon Herbs whose extract has been found to be an excellent and superior tonic and no serious results can follow the use of the Regulator

To Women in Pregnancy It prevents nausea and vomiting regulating the bowels and keeping the system in perfect health Many Portland ladies can testify to this

To those suffering from Scrofulous disease it is a positive purifier of the blood eradicating all disease

We ask you to try a bottle of this really excellent preparation It is made in Oregon from Oregon Roots and Herbs and we will warrant beneficial results from its use

Sold at every Drug store in Oregon and Washington Territory

A REBUKE

By the Judges to Albert Weber for publishing a falsehood:

WE THE UNDERSIGNED members of the Jury of Group XXV at the Centennial Exhibition [illegible] do hereby certify that the following is the true basis of our recommendation for award to Mr Albert Weber of New York

THE NEW CYCLOPEDIA

That the public may at once become acquainted with the character of the last great monument to American scholarship and enterprise a few extracts are herewith published showing the remarkable favor the work has acquired

From the Rev E G Robinson D D LL D, President of Brown University Providence R I [illegible] numerous [illegible] It is more comprehensive in matter and more compact in form It in short surpasses all others in the number of thoroughly competent writers who have been employed in preparing it and in the amount of the [illegible] and valuable information which it contains

From the Hon Wm [illegible] I believe Johnson's Cyclopedia [illegible] the most complete most useful and most easily usable yet published we have

From the Hon Wm [illegible] Johnson's Cyclopedia [illegible] and deserves the highest premium and largest patronage

From Hon H H Haight Ex Gov of California
SAN FRANCISCO June [illegible]

In my judgment it is far superior to any encyclopedia [illegible] published in this country [illegible] and those which have preceded it [illegible]

From Robert O Cravens Librarian Cal State Library
SACRAMENTO May 11 1878

We have in the library all of the principal cyclopedias published in the English language and in my judgment The New Universal Cyclopedia comes nearer being a perfect manual of reference than any other work I have ever seen

We have over sixty Cyclopedias in our library and for all purposes I have no hesitation in recommending Johnson's as the most useful I know
A E WHITAKER, Librarian M L A

From DR J H WYTHE Prof of Microscopy and Histology Medical College of the Pacific
OAKLAND Cal Aug 3 1878

An acquaintance with various large Encyclopedias enables me to contrast Johnson's Universal intelligently and I have no hesitation in commending it as the best yet published In the freshness of its scientific matter especially it is not equalled, while its style is a model of condensation
J H WYTHE M D

The amount of matter in Johnson's is unsurpassed by any other American Cyclopedia while its range of topics is wholly unequalled by any other work of the kind in the English language and it is sold for about one half the price of others

A PLAIN ISSUE

A Card to the Public.

From October 27 1876—fourteen days before the close of the Centennial exhibition—when all the machinery for investigation was at hand to this day Weber has published the following figures of the judges on pianos—given to him then and there

ORIGINAL FIGURES

WEBER

	Bristow	Kupka	Oliver	Schiedmayer
Tone	6	6	6	6
Equality	6	6	6	5
Quality	6	6	6	6
Touch	6	6	6	6
	24	24	24	23—95

Total—95 Out of a possible 96

Now Messrs Steinway publish fourteen months after the close of the Centennial a different set of figures on grand Piano etc. They admit publicly that while all the rest of the piano manufacturers have quietly attended to their business they have traveled thousands of miles, made two ocean voyages and carried on an immense correspondence covering thirteen months persuading confusing manipulating the judges, with a slightly different result

If Messrs Steinway or their agent here will prove that the above are not the correct original figures as handed in by the judges before the close of the Exhibition we will give to the poor of Portland our check for $500 Also if Messrs Steinway or their agents at Salem Albany The Dalles or Walla Walla, will prove that their original figures were not 91 out of a possible 96 which is four less than Weber received we will give to the poor of each of the above cities our check for $500

The fact of the matter is the Weber piano has become by far too popular to suit the interest of that competing firm and they now perceive that their former prestige is fading fast before the growing popularity of Mr Weber, and every possible means is being resorted to in order to crush him

Finally we would add that while it is unsafe to trust an unscrupulous concern like that of Messrs Steinway whose questionable practices and manipulations at exhibitions have become notorious and whom we believe are capable of doing anything except sticking to the truth yet we still have so much faith in the power of truth that we are loth to believe that even they would perjure themselves and dare to come forward and swear that Weber's figures, 95 as published throughout the world BEFORE the close of the exhibition are wrong

Does any sane man or woman believe it possible that Messrs Steinway would wait thirteen months after the close of the Centennial to correct Weber's statement of figures when it could have been done while the commission itself was in Philadelphia in session in thirteen hours or surely in thirteen days? NEVER

Weber's Award signed by all the Judges reads as follows

For sympathetic pure and rich tone combined with greatest power as shown in their three styles Grand Square and Upright Pianos which show intelligence and solidity in construction a pliant and easy touch which at the same time answers promptly to its requirements, together with excellence of workmanship

The above Diploma signed by every member of the Commission and Judges on Pianos can be seen at Weber's warerooms corner Fifth Avenue and 16th street, New York at any time,

Notwithstanding the desperate effort which is being made to injure the reputation of the only rival they are afraid of the Weber Piano will still continue to be the favorite with the public in the concert room and the parlor

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer and if you lead a miserable unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world it is entirely your own fault, and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism which has killed thousands Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart sour stomach habitual costiveness dizziness of head nervous prostration low spirits, etc Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures, You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents Three doses will relieve you

Dr Mintie's Vegetable Nephreticum,

Will cure all diseases of the Kidneys Bladder and Urinary Organs Hundreds have been cured after all other remedies have failed His English Dandelion Pills have no equal in all cases of Diseased Liver Dyspepsia or any Billious derangement Many of your leading citizens of this city will vouch as to their virtues To be had of all druggists.

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.
Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate, possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty —a pure and clear complexion. NOTES FROM INDEPENDENCE

INDEPENDENCE Aug 17 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Your correspondent has been sojourning here but a few weeks but during this time he has had his eyes open to the advantages arising from the location and the resources of the surrounding country Independence is the principal river town and grain depot in Polk county and at this time contains a population of about 800 inhabitants, which is rapidly increasing Business houses and residences are springing up on every side and in a short time it bids fair to rival Albany Eugene City and the large towns in the upper Willamette valley There are two saw mills two shingle mills and two flour mills in operation at the present time also three grocery and dry goods stores two drug stores two furniture stores one hardware store and two meat markets Indeed many of the different branches of business are well represented yet there is great need of more There is a good opening for a machine shop and foundry here When the fact is considered that there is nothing of the kind on the west side of the river between Corvallis and Portland a distance of one hundred miles it may be readily seen what the inducements are for an enterprise of this kind There are within the limits of the town at this time in active operation six stationary engines used in propelling the various kinds of machinery besides the vast amount required to cultivate thousands of acres of the best farming lands in the state

It is safe to predict that a sure and lucrative business could be built up by a practical machinist in a very short time

Again they need a good newspaper here to represent the interests of the town and this part of the county and if backed up with a little capital I believe it would be well supported by the people When we consider for a moment that this is the principal river town for a large area of country shipping annually between two and three hundred thousand bushels of grain and when we consider the fact that the Oregon Central railroad must strike this place in its course up the river we may readily see that all this cannot fail to build up a town on the banks of the Willamette that the people of Polk county may well be proud of There is still another cause for the future progress of Independence and that is the proposed removal of the county seat from Dallas a small village in the interior of the county near the foothills of the coast range to this place and so great is the confidence felt in its final removal that many people have bought property here and settled on the strength of that alone and we must confess that the prospects of its removal are daily brightening even to the mind of the most superficial observer

The yield of grain in this vicinity will not come up with former years yet the farmers are not disposed to complain The yield of fall grain will quite come up to the average while the spring grain is much better than was expected a few weeks ago Harvesting and threshing are now in full blast and the roads leading to Independence are lined with teams hauling in the grain for storage The standing price for wheat is 75 cents per bushel but the farmers believe that prices will strengthen and but very little has changed hands at these figures I should be pleased to drop you a line occasionally, provided I am not considered too great a trespasser upon your columns SOJOURNER

New System of Wagon Brakes.

TRULLINGER PATENT BRAKE.

NO SHOES TO WEAR OUT TIRES!

No Brake Bar used Will hold a Wagon anywhere from Backing or going Forward.

THIS NEW BRAKE NOW BEING INTRODUCED by the inventor J C Trullinger is a combination of friction gear applied to the hub of a wagon. It is simple and light yet has more strength and durability than any other wagon brake now in use It is so attached to the wagon that it is out of the way of the gearing yet always reliable and at hand when required Any teamster or mechanic can see at once its utility and effective force to hold a load on a down grade or to prevent horse backing when required The Brake is made entirely of iron no wooden part being necessary as no brake bar is used hence it does not carry mud and is not affected by wet and muddy or icy roads.

We invite critical examination as we believe its merits can be demonstrated to any party who uses or understands a wagon brake

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for his great professional success.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

Socialists Celebrating

NEW YORK Aug 18—The Germans to day celebrated the triumph of Social Democrats in the recent elections in Germany

Tennessee Democrats.

NASHVILLE Aug 15—The Tennessee Democratic convention on the 22d ballot nominated Judge Albert S Marks, of Franklin county for governor.

Terrible Tragedy.

ST LOUIS Aug 18—A terrible tragedy was enacted at the Girard House shortly after 10 o'clock this evening. Joseph P. Callord, at one time a promising lawyer shot a woman said to be his mistress named Nettie Smith, with whom he was living at the Girard House, then shot himself The woman received three wounds one directly through the body near the stomach one in the head and the third in the shoulder Callord was shot in the right temple. Both died almost instantly Jealousy and whisky are thought to be the causes. Callord was a disreputable man for many years, and, it is stated, forced his wife to leave him, after which he took up with this woman

Heavy Defalcation.

CHICAGO Aug. 17.—The papers to-morrow morning will publish the particulars of a defalcation by Charles W. Angell, secretary of the Pullman Palace Car Company. About three years ago his wife died, leaving two infant children This loss seemed for a time to impair his mental and physical health Lately he has gradually been recovering good spirits, but having suffered during the past winter disappointment in some social affairs it now transpires that he fell into disreputable associations. At about the usual time for his summer vacation he proposed to meet Mr Pullman in New York, and started east with that avowed purpose, Mr. Pullman reached New York on the 7th inst., and as Mr. Angell did not appear for a day or two, he became anxious regarding him and dispatched Angell's brother to Saratoga and other places which he had intended visiting Pullman hastened home and instituted an examination. This developed the fact that Angell had disappeared with funds and securities of the company. The possible maximum of loss sustained is $120,000 partly in cash and partly in securities of the company which were in his custody as secretary. He representing to the company's cashier that he was sending it to the office of the company in New York, and that proper vouchers would be returned, thus evading or overriding the custom of the office which required vouchers to accompany every payment of money. So great was the confidence reposed in his honor and integrity, that this action created no uneasiness until his mysterious and protracted absence became the cause of suspicion

WASHINGTON Aug 18—Senor Zamacona Mexican minister having been asked whether he anticipated war with the United States said By no means—President Diaz is very anxious to preserve friendly relations with the United States and is doing everything in his power to put down lawlessness on the border but the Mexican government is like this country, it cannot at all times keep perfect order in outlying and sparsely inhabited states

The South Carolina Revenue Cases.

WASHINGTON Aug 19—The following telegrams explain themselves

WASHINGTON Aug 17 1878.

C. L. Northrop U S District Attorney Greenville S. C. I have your dispatch in regard to Redmond His frauds and violence led directly to the killing of Ladd I have no terms to make with him while our officers are either incarcerated or in jeopardy I am surprised that Earl should appear for his defense considering the fact that he had been retained by the United States to defend Kane and others whose present misfortunes are attributed to the very act which Earl would have to defend in Redmond. GREEN B RAUM Commissioner

Wm Earl Special Attorney, Greenville In reply to your dispatch I will say that the apologists of Redmond show him to have been a violator of law of the most desperate character pursuing business and defrauding the government for a livelihood and shooting officers without mercy who undertook his arrest His gross misconduct led directly to the death of Ladd I cannot consent to any leniency to Redmond while deputies Kane and others are incarcerated or in jeopardy A little leniency by the state towards U S officers would seem at this juncture to be worthy of consideration

GREEN B RAUM Commissioner

Value of Trade Dollars.

NEW YORK Aug 19—The Times' Washington special says The treasury department has received a number of communications from large firms and others respecting Linderman's circular of July 20th relative to the value of trade dollars The writers judging from the tone of their letters belong to that class of thrifty persons who before the department informed the public that the trade dollar was only worth its bullion value which at present rates is but 90 cents and a fraction were in the habit of buying the coins in question at a discount varying from 5 to 8 per cent and then passing them off at par This was the case in some large manufacturing establishments, where the employes have been invariably paid partly in trade dollars Railroad companies also realized a large saving by using the trade dollar at their ticket offices and palming them off on the public at par value It was to check this swindle that the director of the mint pub
